STALIN FAILS ARRIVE; MEET DELAYED

TRUMAN, CHURCHILL AWAIT THIRD MEMBER WORLD TRIUMVIRATE

FULL SCALE OPENING OF CONFERENCE DELAYED UNTIL TUESDAY

By DANIEL DE LUCE and ERNEST E. VASCARO

POTSDAM, July 16.—(AP)—President Truman, talking with Prime Minister Churchill and toured the wrecked heart of Berlin today preliminary to the first Big Three meeting, at which the warring with Japan likely will be a leading topic.

First American President to visit Germany, Mr. Truman had an opportunity to see Adolf Hitler's ruined and looted chancellery, the battle-scarred reichstag and the wreckage of the Tiergarten.

Soviet spokesmen said they had no word that Premier Stalin and Foreign Minister Molotov had arrived in Potsdam, but added: "They will be here in time for the opening of the conference." The opening sessions, originally scheduled today, apparently had been delayed until tomorrow.

Stalin and Molotov generally were believed to be in Potsdam. Churchill, chewing dourly on a cigar, inspected the reich's chancellery during the afternoon and asked his Russian escort how the Nazis there had died.

The President slipped out of Potsdam for two hours for his tour. He inspected the U. S. Second Army (Hell on Wheels) division along one of the superhighways Hitler built. This division is an American occupation force in Berlin.

Prime Minister Churchill called on Mr. Truman for their first meeting since President Roosevelt's death, but this was described as simply a courtesy call.

Mr. Truman also conferred with Secretary of State James F. Byrnes, veteran of the Yalta conference, and with the President's chief of staff, Alexander A. Ransdell.

Stalpin, outside Hitler's chancellery, the President shook his head at the destruction and told reporters:

"Brought it on themselves. It is terrible thing, but they brought it on themselves."

President Truman, an artillery captain in the last war, presented a citation to company E of the 17th armored engineering battalion, which crossed the Rhine under fire and commented:

"I am only sorry that I didn't get a chance to participate in some phase of this war myself."

He inspected the Second Army division. Then his wide tour of Berlin, carried into some sections of the Russian occupation zone.

Passing through the Brandenburg Gate, he was saluted by Col. Gen. Alexander Gorbatov, commander of Berlin.

The presidential car was accompanied by a small secret service party and a detail of army rifle-men.

Saw Broadlines. The President saw broadlines amid crumbling buildings, including wreckage of the reichstag and debris which is all that remains of the famous Adlon hotel, and piles of rubble.

The British leader spent nearly a half hour strolling through the rubble of the building. Accompanied only by members

U. S. MEMBERSHIP IN WORLD FUND, BANK, AS AID TO MARKETS

MONETARY PROPOSALS NAMED "BRETTON WOODS" SUBMITTED

WASHINGTON, July 16.—(AP)—Chairman Wagner (D-NY) of the senate banking committee called today for United States membership in a world fund and bank which he said would bring "orderly markets and dependable currency values."

Wagner submitted to the senate the monetary proposals named collectively "Bretton Woods" after the town in New Hampshire where they were born one year ago in a world conference.

There the United Nations agreed on a plan for an "international monetary fund and international bank for reconstruction and development." Members would be depositors, borrowers, and stockholders.

In a long prepared speech asking approval of legislation authorizing American partnership, Wagner said near the outset:

"The question before us is whether by default we will allow the world to repeat the tragic blunders of the 1920's and 1930's. This bill offers us the opportunity to initiate constructive steps to outlaw competitive currency devaluation and other economic warfare devices, to substitute cooperation for unilateral action in dealing with international problems."

United States Quota. "The United States quota in the fund is $2,750,000,000 of which $686,000,000 will be paid in gold and $2,064,000,000 in a dollar deposit to the credit of the fund at the Federal Reserve bank. Other countries will subscribe $6,000,000,000 of which more than $1,100,000,000 will be in gold and $4,900,000,000 in their currencies," said Wagner.

Wagner took note of criticism that the United States "puts up nearly all the funds and gets little better than worthless paper."

He suggested: "Ask any banker engaged in the business of buying and selling these currencies every day if he believes them to be worthless."

"The role of the bank will be to pick up where private investment would otherwise leave off and, by guaranteeing loans that meet specified requirements, stimulate additional private international investment through established investment channels," he said.

Poes of the Bretton Woods plan for an international bank and monetary fund virtually conceded that

Would Bar Peace Time Military Training in World

WASHINGTON, July 16.—(AP)—House Republican Leader Martin proposed today that "before the United States adopts compulsory military service" the government check an international agreement eliminating all such peacetime training.

The Massachusetts representative made public the text of a resolution he will introduce tomorrow urging President Truman, Secretary of State Byrnes and Edward R. Roybal to support the proposal.

In a statement Martin added: "If a mutual understanding can be reached between nations and peoples that the policy of gigantic systems of universal compulsory military service should be eliminated, it would relieve the United States and all other nations of the necessity to assume this great new burden at a time when we must build, reconstruct and readjust the world to peace."

Superfortresses Drop Fire Bombs On More Jap Cities

GUAM, Tuesday, July 17.—(AP)—B-29 Superfortresses in a pre-dawn attack today showered fire bombs on four Japanese cities over a 400-mile stretch.

DALLAS CAFE MAN FATALLY WOUNDED "COWBOY" HENRY

MAN ON PAROLE FROM PENITENTIARY DIED FOLLOWING SHOOTING

DALLAS, July 16.—(AP)—Claude (Cowboy) Henry, convicted slayer out on parole from the state penitentiary and husband of Toni Jo Henry who died in the Louisiana electric chair, was shot to death here yesterday after an attack with S. W. Farrow, cafe owner.

Farrow surrendered at the sheriff's office and furnished bond after presentation by his attorney of a habeas corpus writ.

Detective E. Gaddy said the cafe owner shot Henry three times last night after the convict had knocked the other man down several times.

The slain man was granted a six-month parole from a Texas prison on last April 18 by Gov. Coke Stevenson. Henry was serving a 50-year sentence for the slaying of Arthur Sinclair, San Antonio officer.

The parole was granted on recommendation of the State Board of Pardons and Paroles. Henry was paroled in Dallas county under terms which did not permit him to leave the city.

Gaddy said the tall, deep-chested Henry approached a car in which the cafe operator was sitting in front of his business establishment. The restaurant man got out of the

OCCUPATION OF TWO ADDITIONAL ENEMY ISLANDS UNOPPOSED

By ROBERT GEIGER

ITHYA ISLAND, Okinawa, June 16.—(Delayed)—(AP)—Rugged, tensed Marines of the Eighth Regiment combat team splashed ashore on this little island 310 miles south of Kyushu June 3 behind a stiff rocket and shellfire barrage and beneath low-flying air cover, and found no opposition.

But the only Japanese in the whole area—garrisoning a tiny island nearby—had watched the barrage and promptly rowed over in a long boat to surrender their entire 15-man garrison.

Adm. Chester W. Nimitz today July 16—announced the unopposed occupation of Ithya and Aguni, June 3 and 9, respectively but did not mention the surrender of the third, Ithya, 8 miles long, is about 20 miles northwest of Okinawa's northern tip; Aguni is 35 miles west of central Okinawa.

"Well, it was a good training maneuver," remarked Maj. Gen. Leroy P. Hunt, of Berkeley, Calif., who commanded the Marine invasion.

The absent Ithya garrison (like Aguni's) evidently had been called to Okinawa more than two months ago.

GREATEST QUESTION COMING OUT EUROPEAN WAR TO FIND ANSWER IN MEETING OF THE BIG THREE

By DEWITT MACKENZIE

Associated Press Foreign Affairs Analyst. It won't be long now before we have an answer to the greatest question that has grown out of the European war—whether the Big Three can stand solidly together in the reconstruction of a shattered continent as they have stood together on the battlefields.

If President Truman, Generalissimo Stalin and Prime Minister Churchill are to keep the Berlin conference in the channels of unity and mutual confidence, then we shall have won the peace as we have won the war. Solution of all the great problems out of the Hitlerian conflict are bound up in this unity among America, Britain and Russia.

TEXAS IS ASKED FOR 10,000 MORE BARRELS WEST TEXAS CRUDE

AUSTIN, July 16.—(AP)—Texas is asked to produce 10,000 more barrels daily of West Texas crude oil in August.

The August certification of the Petroleum Administration for War, received today by the State Railroad Commission, asks production of 2,190,000 barrels daily of crude oil, an increase of 10,000 barrels over the amount July certification.

PAW asked that the entire crude increase come from Railroad Commission Districts 7-C and 8 in West Texas. Total certification for West Texas was 513,000 barrels daily.

The West Texas boost makes total increase of 30,000 barrels production from that area in two months.

Commenting on this situation Commission Chairman Olin Culbertson reiterated that it demonstrates the need for construction of a West Texas-California pipeline.

Culbertson asserted that railroads currently are unable to move westward present West Texas production and increasingly heavy demands upon the carriers for westward movement of war materials will add to the problem of tank car movement of crude.

He said that West Texas can produce 14,000 barrels more daily within its maximum efficient rate of production to meet Pacific war needs and that only pipeline movement will ease the situation.

Two years ago PAW denied application for construction of a 988-mile pipeline from West Texas to Los Angeles. Oil transported from West Texas to Houston and then shipped to Los Angeles by water traverses 8,812 miles, Culbertson said.

PAW's August certification for production of oil petroleum liquids from Texas, including condensates and natural gasoline, was 2,358,000 barrels daily, an increase of 13,000 barrels of which 3,000 was other than crude oil.

LARGE INDUSTRIAL CENTERS OF JAPAN VIRTUALLY WRECKED

AMERICAN NAVAL AND AIR UNITS RAIN DESTRUCTION ON JAP ISLANDS

By LIEF ERICKSSON

GUAM, July 16.—(AP)—Dealing the enemy a devastating succession of blows, U. S. sea and air might virtually erased three Japanese cities, struck heavily at 13 others and sank or destroyed 152 surface craft over the week end.

The powerful Third Fleet all but leveled two Japanese oil centers in Northern Japan while its carrier planes burned another to the ground, winged offshore to knock off 108,000 tons of shipping and joined with American land-based aircraft to bomb and strafe 13 additional Nipponese towns and cities.

(Japanese Domei news agency said today that the fleet Japanese withdrawal, presumably because of bad weather, but warned it might return any time and any place.)

(Domei said 2,500 carrier planes took part in the strikes on Northern Honshu and Hokkaido—1,500 Sunday, 1,000 Saturday. The agency claimed early reports indicated damage was "light" gasoil.

Opposition feeble. Feeble anti-aircraft fire was the only opposition offered to the entire series of explosive assaults.

Battleship forces spearheaded by the 45,000-ton super-titanic Missouri, Iowa and Wisconsin, all but destroyed the iron and steel center of Muroran on Hokkaido island yesterday. Carrier planes had burned out practically all of industrial buildings on the same island the day before.

B-29s made a return visit to attack the Nippon oil company plant at Kudamatsu on Honshu, about five miles southeast of Tokyo, with high explosives.

Returning B-29 crews said the bombing results were "good to excellent" and that fires and explosions were visible for 100 miles. "It turned the clouds and horizon blue and they stayed that way for 30 seconds" one pilot said. No Superfortresses were lost.

More than 100 Mustangs from the two B-29s struck at six Nippon airfields and destroyed or damaged 37 Japanese planes and then pounded on shipping in Nagoya Bay and railroad yards.

Three Mustangs were lost. Only eight interceptors came up to fight. Four of them were shot down, another was probably destroyed, and two were damaged. One B-29 was hit in the tail tank were blown up, two locomotives and other harbor, airfield and rail installations were damaged.

On Other Fronts. Elsewhere in the far western Pacific, navy search Privateers heavily attacked Korea; army Liberators hit the Singapore area and shipping off Southern Honshu; Thunderbolts raged to the China coast; attack and fighter bombers hit two Kyushu island cities; carrier planes struck three airfields on Honshu, and 100 army Mustangs

U.S. LAND-BASED AIR POWER IN PACIFIC IS READY FOR BIG TASK

CAN NOW HURL THREE THOUSAND PLANES DAILY AGAINST JAPANESE

By HAMILTON W. FARON

GUAM, July 16.—(AP)—American land-based air power in the Pacific can hurl 3,000 planes at Japan in a single day by co-ordinating tactical air forces duty which now are being realigned for the great pre-invasion assaults on the homeland, Lt. Gen. Barney M. Giles said today.

Reporting that the first contingent of Eighth Air Force B-29s under Lt. Gen. James H. Doolittle "will arrive by the middle of next month," General Giles, the newly arrived Northern Japan, thus far untouched except by B-29s, also will come under B-29 attack.

Gen. Carl A. Spaatz, with Giles as his deputy, heads the consolidated strategic forces.

Under USAFPAF will be two air forces "composed of very long-range bombers and long-range fighters to protect them," Giles said.

One is the 20th Air Force, which will continue to operate from Marianas bases, with support of P-51 Mustang fighters from two Jima. No new operations independently as the Seventh Fighter Command, the Iwo Mustangs formerly were part of the Eighth Air Force.

Curtis E. (Old Iron) LeMay, of the old 21st Bomber command, heads the new 20th Air Force.

The other strategic Air Force will be the Eighth under Douglas M. Biddle, with B-29s and P-4s based in the Okinawa area. Transferred to its staff will be headquarters personnel from the old 20th Bomber Command which started American operations against Japan, Giles said.

Already, Giles said, B-29 raids are "practically an invasion" in Okinawa, and the enemy's country "is being destroyed."

JAPAN: Battleships bombarded the Japanese mainland for the second day while 1,000 carrier planes hit mainland points. The Saturday and Sunday fleet-air strike sank or damaged 128 Japanese ships and small craft.

BORNEO: Aussies neared Sandakan oil fields.

PHILIPPINES: 4,870 Japanese dead were counted in the Philippines during the past week.

RYUKYUS: Ithya and Aguni islands off Okinawa occupied by U. S. Marines.

CHINA: Chinese captured city on the Hunan Kwangsi railroad, 50 miles southwest of Kweilin.

BURMA: British seized initiative in the Sittoung river bend and are besieging the main Japanese concentration point of Myittha, 14 miles northwest of Rangoon.

NAVAL GUNS WRECKED TWO BIG STEEL CITIES ON JAPAN HOMELAND

CARRIER AND LAND-BASED PLANES BLAST ENEMY OBJECTIVES

By LEONARD MILLMAN

Associated Press War Editor. Tokyo reported American naval task forces were withdrawing from Northern Japanese waters today after big guns wrecked two steel producing cities in one of the most devastating week-ends of the war, during which 102 of the mikedo's vessels and 133 aircraft were destroyed or damaged.

Tokyo conceded the powerful Third fleet bombardment units were pulling out only "because of bad weather conditions" which made further attack "difficult" and warned they would strike again.

Land-based aircraft ranging from Superforts to Iwo Jima's fighters kept the air pressure on Japan today, although their numbers were negligible compared to Tokyo's estimate of 2,500 sorties flown Saturday and Sunday.

Japanese clamored for their government to do something about it and Lt. Gen. Barney M. Giles, deputy commander of the new U. S. strategic air forces, said 3,000 planes could strike Japan any day they wished.

Three Cities Damaged. With reports still incomplete on the combined warships, shells and carrier raids on heretofore untouched Northern Japan, Adm. Chester W. Nimitz reported three cities heavily damaged and communications virtually cut off between Honshu, "mainland of the new U. S. strategic air forces," said 3,000 planes could strike Japan any day they wished.

Naval guns raked much of Muroran and Hokkaido and Kamahshi on Honshu while carrier aircraft burned out the Hokkaido town of Kushiro, prompting Premier Kantaro Suzuki to urge Japanese to have faith in defense preparations.

Heaviest damage was inflicted Sunday on Muroran. A thousand tons of American shells fired from the super-titanic Missouri, Iowa and Wisconsin aircraft set off a series of explosions and fires in the Nippon steel plant, heavily damaged the Wanshi iron works, a chemical plant, and other industrial establishments.

Shattered sections of the industrial and waterfront sections of the city. The smoke pall was so heavy that before Sunday's bombardment ended, spotter planes were flying only 1,000 feet above the city and still they struggled to determine accurately the extent of damage.

No Retaliation Effort. The Japanese made no attempt to retaliate, although the bold task force under Rear Adm. Oscar C. Badger steamed virtually into the harbor with Japanese lying on three sides of the bombardment group.

Tokyo reported reconstruction crews were at work repairing the steel producing city of Kamahshi, which was wrecked in Saturday's bombardment by another task force under Rear Adm. J. S. Shafroth.

Supporting carrier aircraft—Tokyo said were 1,000 Saturday and 1,500 Sunday—plunged through bad weather to knock out land and sea communications and damaged 128 vessels (33 ships sunk, 34 damaged and 31 smaller craft sunk and 80 damaged), including virtually all of the ferries which carry essential raw materials for the Kamahshi steel mills of Hokkaido. They knocked out 92 planes, most of them on the ground.

Other Air Strikes. Other air strikes accounted for the balance of Japanese planes and ships wrecked ranged as far south as Malaya.

CORSICANA, TEX., JULY 17, 1945

DISTINGUISHED OFFICE

Secretary Stettinius' new job as delegate to the Security Council of the United Nations has every prospect of being even more important than similar posts in the British Commonwealth of nations.

For many years the Dominions of Australia, Canada and South Africa have had High Commissioners at London. These are ambassadors on the informal side. They are eminent men. The Australian High Commissioner is Stanley Bruce, a former prime minister. Canada's High Commissioner is Vincent Massey, a Toronto business man whose many offices have included that of Canadian Minister to Washington from 1926 to 1930. So successful has this institution been that since 1930 Great Britain has sent corresponding High Commissioners to the three Dominions.

The High Commissionerships are valued reward for achievement. Secretary Stettinius may be the first of many eminent Americans to serve in a similar position as our representative on the council of the United Nations.

ONE WOMAN TO ANOTHER

Gladys Richmond of London, England, writes the New York Times "to pay tribute to the mothers, wives, sweethearts of the American boys who have done and are still doing such a grand job of work." She says the English have seen these boys "fresh from the dust and grime of battle, helping us in our suffering, always there as quickly as any civil defense aide could be, doing their utmost to help."

She speaks of their concern for the well-being of the English people, of their gaiety and friendliness. Then she speaks of how the English women have come to know and appreciate the women of America through these boys.

"It is as though one flew on a magic carpet, having the most amazing experiences as one visits each state. The Middle West with its deep blue skies and miles of rolling green plains, California with its orange groves, through the cities teeming thousands with the lights aglow, on into the tenement areas, where the heart of America beats proud and strong, back again to some quiet backwater, perhaps fishing just lazily the time away.

"Not infrequently we caught glimpses of happy wives playing and romping with their children just before bedtime, or in some state country home where a mother waits with anxiety such as only a mother can know. We see pictures of happy, laughing girls or stately matrons. From Washington to Florida, New York to California, we have felt the warmth of your friendship and have known in our hearts you have followed along the same path we have trod, always ready to give a helping hand.

"O you women of America! You truly have just cause to be proud of the men you bore!"

The women of America are proud—and grateful to the women of other countries for such appreciation as that expressed in this warm and understanding letter.

Fortunately the kids around the corner haven't got around yet to punishing war criminals.

COURAGE-LACK.
He seemed to others big and strong.
(How oft has this occurred?)
And yet, he looked upon a wrong
And never said a word.

He would have dared, if ordered out,
Upon the field to die;
And yet, when evil stalked about,
He turned away his eye.

For they had might who did the wrong,
And cruel threats they made.
And so to speak against the wrong
The good man was afraid.

PULLMANS FOR VETERANS

For months the Office of Defense Transportation has warned the American public that trains were needed for war use. It has asked civilians politely to do only what travelling was absolutely necessary, and spend their vacations at home. But that apparently was not enough. Now, when the redeployment of millions of soldiers coincides with vacation time, it has been forced to act.

Beginning on July 16, all Pullmans now used for journeys of less than 450 miles will be removed from civilian service. This means that anyone who has to travel, say, from New York to Boston, from Cleveland to Chicago or from Seattle to Portland, Ore., must struggle for a seat in an already overcrowded daycoach.

But it also means that the weary veteran who has just thirty days in which to get acquainted with his family again and reassure himself that the old landmarks are still in place, before reassignment to more fighting in the Pacific, will have a chance to travel quickly and in reasonable comfort. It is one of the greatest things civilians can do for their armies, at the least cost.

ERA OF COOPERATION

The United States government and its people probably have a better understanding now with the rest of the world, and are in better position to cooperate with all nations of good will than ever before. The charter adopted at San Francisco, as President Truman has pointed out, is backed by "the overwhelming sentiment" of this country. New lessons have been learned and driven home by the experience of the war just ended and the war still in progress. Congress seems more amenable to full cooperation, both the Senate and the House of Representatives, than it has been before within the memory of living Americans.

It is well to strike while the iron is hot, and to establish beyond any possible doubt the definite and official commitment of this nation to the principles now accepted, before men and nations of ill will—and there are still some, though few—may intrude malevolently to muddy the international waters again.

"We have tested the great principles of cooperation in this war," the President has observed, "and we have found that it works." Moreover, there is now a new charter and a new spirit, which may be made to work in peace as in war.

The world is standing now at one of the turning points of the ages. If the spirit lately shown by all of the Allied Nations and nearly all the civilized world is sustained in this great enterprise, and does what it was not ready to do at the close of the last war, heaving henceforward to the line of enlightened cooperation, the world hereafter may rise up and call us blessed.

For a young bride to go home to her mother was once a humiliation. It meant that her marriage was on the rocks. Now it means that her husband is fighting for his country, and is practically a badge of honor.

Every day thousands of old cars are said to be going out of commission, but who, looking at a highway, would ever think it?

We think we're the most politickin' nation on earth. But Britain's recent election presented 1675 candidates.

Spirited and witty, she has a sense of humor to carry her over difficult and a personality that is bound to make a hit with the Egyptians.

She goes to her new duties thoroughly prepared. A graduate of Sterling College, Sterling, Kans., she took her M. A. degree with a major in home economics from Texas State College for Women at Denton.

Correspondents have written her the cooking methods at the school in Cairo were the English type, rather than American. But in all probability when this Texan gets to Egypt the students will be learning the "Texas method" of cooking steaks and apple pie, anyway.

GRANDSON CORSICANA WOMAN CITED FOR HIS ACTION IN PACIFIC

Lt. Lucian Tatum, a grandson of Mrs. O. W. Williams of Corsicana, has been cited in an Associated Press dispatch to the Fort Worth Star-Telegram describing devastating raids carried out in spite of some of the worst weather ever encountered in the Pacific by a group of Pacific Okinawa-based United States warplanes, a clipping from the Fort Worth paper reveals.

Tatum, according to the dispatch, flew his B-25 with one engine for two hours through the storm after his plane collided with another ship, which was lost but whose crew was later rescued.

"We lost 5,000 feet instantly after the collision," Tatum is quoted as saying. "Both planes were tossed around like corks. One of my engines was dead—and my speed seemed like five miles above stalling."

After twice ordering his plane abandoned, Tatum managed to level it off, he related.

"We were forced to go home alone over enemy-held islands, barely clearing mountains on more than one occasion. We had 17 minutes of gas left when we reached home."

The raid was against Japanese shipping and air fields from the Northern Ryukyus to the enemy's southernmost home island of Kyushu, the Associated Press dispatch stated.

Tatum, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. Tatum, 3340 Baylor, Fort Worth, was born near Groesbeck on December 31, 1923.

His wife, June, lives at 3129 View in Fort Worth.

Navarro county servicemen returning from military duty and interested in establishing themselves on family-type farms may apply at the Farm Security Administration office for a government loan covering full cost of land and improvements, according to Lennox O. Wright, FSA supervisor.

A limited number of such loans may be made in this county as result of a new $25,000,000 appropriation congress has voted for farm ownership loans for veterans. Loans may run for 40 years and bear 3 per cent interest. Only those who are unable to obtain adequate financing through other sources are eligible for an FSA loan.

Applicants are invited to visit the FSA office at 214 1-2 North Main street in Corsicana after locating the farms they wish to buy. Each farm is appraised in line with its actual value based on its long-time earning capacity. The FSA committee of local farmers determine the eligibility of applicants. George W. Watkins, Tom Weaver and Marshall Tatum comprise the committee in Navarro county.

"Many veterans will find it desirable to work several years as tenants before becoming landowners," Mr. Wright declared. "Under its rural rehabilitation program, FSA is able to make operating loans for purchase of equipment, livestock, feed, fertilizer and minor improvements."

Veterans also will be eligible to share in the $25,000,000 appropriation for the regular farm ownership program. To date FSA has assisted more than 3,000 Texas farmers to become landowners. Taking advantage of the variable payment plan, which enables the borrower to make large repayments in good years, hundreds of these farmers are three to five years ahead on schedule on repayments.

Syrup or Honey Can Be Used For Fruit Canning

Fe wpeople will have enough sugar for making fig preserves this year, but it is possible to can with syrup or honey all the fruit not used fresh, according to Miss Vera Sneed, county home demonstration agent.

For preservation of figs, which are due to ripen in Navarro county this month, Miss Sneed recommends the following method:

Leave a stem on the fruit—an eighth of an inch or more. To a gallon of sound, firm figs sprinkle a cup of soda. Add a gallon of boiling water. Let the figs stand in this soda water solution for five minutes. Then drain and rinse thoroughly.

For the actual canning process boil the figs in a syrup for an hour. Make the syrup with two cups of honey and two quarts of water. Then add a half cup of lemon juice which keeps the figs from being too sweet.

Also the acid of the lemon juice helps prevent spoilage. Pack them hot, cover with the syrup and

One Moment, Please
By JAMES A. JOHNSON
MINISTER WESTERN CHURCH OF CHRIST

A few days ago, I visited a mother who requested that I come and talk with her about her son who has been reported missing in action. I read a Scripture and offered a prayer and did all I could to comfort this sorrowing woman. When sore troubles come, it is natural for people to meditate upon God's word and to pray, for at that time, as at no other they realize the need of God's helping hand.

As I talked with this mother, I just thought that if it were in my power and the matter left wholly to my choice, I would restore her son and heal the wound of her heart. But, of course, that is not within the power of man. The best that I could do for her was to pray with her and discuss a Scripture.

In this world of pain and heartaches, the best all of us can do is to rely on God. Realizing that our mortal lives are slowly decaying and dying, we should perpetually maintain the attitude to God: "Into thy hands I commend Thy spirit." And thus we can be resurrected to everlasting life in the last day.

ONE ADDITION TO FIFTH AVE. CHURCH OF CHRIST SUNDAY

There was one addition to the Fifth Avenue Church of Christ yesterday. A young man who was recently discharged from the army army forces was baptized following the morning service.

Frank J. Dunn, minister, spoke at both Sunday services. The topic for the morning sermon was "The New Birth," and in the evening, "How Shall the Young Secure Their Hearts?" At the evening hour, the service was specially arranged for the young people, who assisted the minister in the service. The congregational singing was directed by William Bonner. The announcements and scripture reading were given by Kenneth Ashton, and prayers were led by Dickie Robinson and James Gunn. The minister reported a larger attendance at this program than any Sunday night service in recent months.

Other services for the week are the women's Bible class, Tuesday, 8:30 a. m.; midweek service Wednesday, 8 p. m.; church work night, Thursday, 7 p. m.

will be Bishop John M. Moore of Dallas.

Church school was held in all departments. Guy M. Gibson taught the Brotherhood Bible class; Glen Thompson taught the Young Men's Bible class; Mrs. Bill Robinson's class of girls had charge of the program in the Intermediate department. Mr. and Mrs. Dave Walker had charge of the program in the Youth Fellowship service. Boy Scouts will meet tonight; choir rehearsal Wednesday night.

At the morning hour the speaker stated that there were many certainties in life but that the Bible taught of many conclusive certainties and one was the matter of sin. He said all were sinners but through the Bible we are taught how to get forgiveness for sin. He said sin had to be fought every day with daily prayer to help us win the battle over sin.

At the night hour he called for Christian confidence in the lives of all, followers of Christ so that they could meet all trials of life in a victorious way.

IN MEMORY OF WILLIAM H. YORK

Who gave his life for his country the 29th of June, 1944.

He was a member of the Missionary Baptist church. It was a good, Christian boy and was loved by all who knew him. He was a mother, two brothers and three sisters and a host of other relatives and friends to mourn his loss.

Obituary.

It was awfully hard to give you up, dear William, but God needed a jewel up in Heaven to fill his gap. So he reached down and took you out from a thousand other soldiers who stood ready to give their lives for their country. It was and is to give you up, but God knows best, so we will have to be submissive. His will be done. We will miss you after this war is over, and so many of the boys get to come home and you won't get to come, but we know, dear William, you have gone to the home where your dear Dad has gone and it is a much better home than this one here, for it is a home not made with hands, and we know if we live the life we will meet you around that Great White Throne, where there is no more sad partings and there is no more hood-eyes. Written by one that loved him, his aunt.

MATTIE BAILEY.

Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Stroube, T-5 and Mrs. Jack Stroube are spending the week end in Galveston.

MISS BETTY WHEELLOCK BECAME BRIDE REV. ROBERT KENNAUGH IN BEAUTIFUL CHURCH WEDDING

St. John's Episcopal Church was the scene of a wedding of notable interest on Saturday evening at 8:30 o'clock, when Miss Betty Frances Wheellock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Wheellock, became the bride of the Rev. Robert Quayle Kennaugh, son of Rev. and Mrs. C. M. Kennaugh of Kansas City, Kans. The Rev. Mr. Kennaugh, father of the bridegroom, read the impressive double ring service, and the Rev. W. L. Jacobs of Newport, Ark., pronounced the blessing.

Vows were pledged before the altar, where matching urns filled with white lilies, gladioli, asters and peonies were situated against bankings of palms, and scores of tapers flickered in golden beams in floor candelabra in the chancel and about the altar. The prie-dieu on which the couple knelt, was fashioned of white satin. Miniature bride's bouquets tied with white satin ribbons marked the family pews and completed the church decor. Jay Butler served as acolyte.

Wedding Music

Miss Margaret Pannill was at the organ for a program of pre-nuptial music, which included "Reverie" by Debussy, "Evening Star" and "Prayer" by Wagner, "Lullaby" by Liszt and "Night" by Jenkins. The choir sang "Oh, Perfect Love" by Barnby and "Ave Maria" by Schubert. As the couple knelt for the blessing, the choir sang "Prayer" by Dockum-Kerr. The bridegroom carried the bride in a traditional wedding march of "Lohengrin," and Mendelssohn's wedding march was used as the recessional.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a traditional gown of white slipper satin. The closely fitted bodice was designed with a deep yoke and brief sleeves of imported Chantilly lace. The voluminous skirt was accented with a hip-length flared peplum and swept into a graceful full train. Her short veil, matching the bride's full train, fell in full folds from a white satin cat, and she wore long mitts of the same lace used on her gown. She carried a white prayerbook overlaid with Phaeonopsis orchids and showered with stephanotis and diminutive satin ribbons.

Bride's Attendants

Mrs. R. L. Wheellock, Jr., sister-in-law of the bride, who served as matron of honor, was attired in a bouffant picture gown of Persia blue tulle, styled with off-the-shoulder neckline, a softly draped shawl and a long-length skirt. She wore a small hat of matching shadow veiling, accented at the back with blue ribbon streamers. She wore long matching gloves and carried an arm bouquet of Tallahassee roses.

The bridesmaids, Miss Lavita Love, Mrs. Curtis A. Terrill of Kansas City, Kans., sister of the bridegroom, Miss Bonnie Osmundson of Perry, Iowa, and Miss Doris Ramsey of Dallas, Texas, wore light blue gowns of Persia blue tulle with hats of shadow veiling and carried arm bouquets of Souvenir roses.

Martha Ann Terrill of Kansas City, Kans., niece of the bride, served as flower girl. She wore an ankle-length frock of soft yellow tulle with Persia blue sash and carried nosegays of Tallahassee roses. Robert Lloyd Wheellock, III, nephew of the bride, who served as ring bearer, wore a white linen suit and carried a white satin pillow.

Groomsmen

John N. Wheellock Jr., served as best man, and the groomsmen were Cullen Dunn, John H. Pugh, W. A. Lang, Jr., and Louis Dan Story. Mrs. Wheellock, mother of the bride, was attired in soft blue crepe with embellishment of two-tone blue sequins, a small hat fashioned of veiling, matching blue gloves, and her flowers were carried by the bridegroom's mother, who wore navy crepe with matching accessories and a corsage of orchids.

Reception in Home

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. Decorative highlights of the home featured attractive arrangements of gardenias, lilies of the Nile, asters and gladioli.

Adornment of the lace-laid bride's satiated center about a white satin wedding cake of double-ring contour, embellished with lilies of the valley and wedding bells, and complemented by a bride's bouquet of gardenias and glowing white tapers in crystal candelabra. Assisting in the dining room and entertaining the guests were Misses Tina and Stella Johnson, Buena Allyn Watt, Roslyn Dalches, Alice Tatum, Shirley Scott of Dallas, Barbara Jester, Constancia Logsdon and Mrs. Edgar C. Weir.

After being served, the guests assembled in the Wheellock garden, which was attractively illumined with myriad hurricane lamps, and enjoyed the informality of the social interlude.

When the Rev. and Mrs. Kennaugh left for their wedding trip, the bride was wearing a two-piece ensemble of platinum alpaca with lace-trimmed blouse of French batiste, a smart white roll cloche, accented with navy blue ribbon and veil, white gloves and navy accessories.

Educational Background

The bride was graduated from Corsicana High School and Ward-Eelmont, Nashville, Tenn., and attended the University of Texas where she was a member of Zeta Tau Alpha Sorority. The bridegroom, who is rector of St. John's Episcopal Church, was graduated from Benton High School, St. Joseph, Mo., attended the University of Wyoming at Laramie, and earned his degree at the University of the South in Sewanee, Tenn. They will be at home at 1803 Elmwood after their wedding trip.

Out of Town Guests

Out of town guests at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Wheellock, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Jacobs, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Jacobs, Jr., Miss Eileen Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Davidson and son, Don, Mr. and Mrs. Wellborn Patterson, Mrs. Margaret Wellborn, Mr. and Mrs. L. Slaughter, and daughter, Gloria, Mr. and Mrs. Jno. BIG THREE of his personal party, he descended through a trench into the underground shelter where Hitler and Eva Braun were said to have spent their last days during the Russian siege.

The whole hierarchy of United States and British military leaders were in Potsdam along with two American cabinet officers, Secretary of State, and the Secretary of War. Just who accompanied Stalin and Foreign Commissar Molotov to the Big Three conference has not been announced. Russia alone of the great world powers is at peace with Japan.

The scores of state and military leaders who were present at the remote to the outside world as the Shangri La. The 200 news men assigned to the momentous and closely guarded gathering got no closer than the adjacent suburb of Sehlendorf. The atmosphere was thick with the only authorized news from it will come from the conferees themselves.

Stalin came here after at least half a dozen conversations in Moscow with the new Chinese premier, Zhou Enlai, and a large farewell dinner for Song which suggested that the meetings had been fruitful.

Mr. Truman, for his part, was said to see his role not as simply a mediator but as spokesman for a nation which is seeking to arrange a world structure in which its technical leadership and democratic ideals will have a greater play than ever before.

Old-time foreign dwellers in Moscow say it has seemed that Stalin has held closely to four objectives in directing the state affairs for the huge land mass and nearly 200,000,000 people who make up the Soviet Union.

His first objective—defeat of Soviet enemies in the west—has been achieved. "The others are said to be:

1. Defeat of Soviet enemies in the East—meaning first of all Japan.
2. Consolidation of the outer defense system for Soviet territories, which, with the inclusion of the Carpatho-Ukraine in the Soviet Union and the prospective inclusion of the northern half of East Prussia in Soviet Lithuania, would extend the Kremlin's dominion farther than was ever reached by the czars.
3. The crystallizing of wartime friendship with the Western allies to endure through long years of peace to come, in which at the very least there would be tolerant non-interference by the others in the sphere in which each of the Big Three is to be dominant.

Virtually all European problems reported up for discussion in Potsdam bear in some way on the Soviet Union's outer defenses. One of the most pressing of these, of course, is the future of conquered Germany.

Stalin and Molotov at preceding Big Three meetings have succeeded in securing United States and British underwriting of Soviet policies in Europe.

Ten Days to Three Weeks.

For the next 10 days to three weeks, these three—a soft-spoken Missouriian with a reputation for directness, a British aristocrat and a son of a Georgian cobbler—are expected to discuss hunger, reconstruction, boundaries and many other problems besetting Europe's convalescent millions. It seemed certain, also, that the war against Japan would be on the agenda.

Sixty-one-year-old President Truman, bronzed and at the peak of vitality after an eight-day Atlantic crossing, said he was ready to work with relaxation was ready to talk business at once with Churchill and Stalin. The President, who arrived by plane yesterday, took up residence 10 minutes away from the Big Three conference building, where the momentous talks will be held.

The President's reported plan to visit London after the meeting was described as wholly tentative, and he will not visit France.

Press Conference.

BERLIN, July 16.—(AP)—American, Soviet and British press officials attached to the Potsdam delegations were reported to have conferred today on possible measures to assure the press of informative reports on the Big Three meeting.

PACIFIC WAR

Korea, Liberators got four near Southern Honshu. Thunderbolt fighters added one at Shanghai, and Mustang fighters from two added seven near Nagoya. The Mustangs accounted for 37 planes in raids on six Nagoya fields. Six more were eliminated over Malaya. Tokyo reported Mustangs were back today, as between 50 and 75 Superfortresses set off explosions and fires visible for 100 miles in their second high explosive strike at the Kudamatsu oil refinery. No B-29s were lost. Previous Superfort strikes wrecked 45 and killed 50 per cent of Nippon's nine other oil centers.

Says Japan Virtually Destroyed.

"Japan is virtually destroyed," said General Gles and there are no targets left in Japan and there are no Japanese planes in the air. The Red Cross said it indicated strikes in this force would be hurled against virtually untouched targets on the Asiatic mainland after Lt. Gen. James Doolittle's Eighth Air Force is established on Okinawa. Doolittle's Superforts will begin arriving on Okinawa in mid-August.

Admiral Nimitz belatedly announced the occupation of Ithya and Aguni Islands in the Okinawa area early in June. They were taken by Marines without opposition. Only Japanese seen were 156 garlisoning a third tiny island who were so impressed by the bombardment of Ithya they hurried over and surrendered.

Allied Land Action.

Current allied land advances include growing allied advances in two coastal and two inland sectors of China. Chinese were reported mopping up Mannheim, sixth former American air base site to be regained, as the main portion of the enemy garrison fled northward from the island city.

In Southeast China two of Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek's columns were reported within 50 and 32 miles of Kweilin, one of the most important former U. S. air bases.

Coastal Chinese forces pressed within 117 miles of Shanghai, capturing Chongshien, and on the south coast seized the highway center of Limkang on the Luichow peninsula.

Account For Many Japs.

Yanks mopping up in the Philippines killed 4,879 Japanese last week and captured 608. Among them were hundreds of Japanese naval labor troops who starved while nearby Japanese army units ate heartily. American casualties last week were 62 killed, one missing, 195 wounded. Total casualties for the Philippine campaign were 428,732 Japanese, mostly dead, and 54,502 American, mostly wounded. Australian forces drove five miles through southeast Borneo swamps to within five miles of the rich Sampadja oil field against vanishing enemy resistance. Nipponese began pulling out, too, from a brief stand in Southern Burma.

BRETTON WOODS

The plan calls for establishment of an international bank, capitalized at $9,100,000,000, to make or guarantee loans for rehabilitation and economic development, and an $8,800,000,000 monetary fund to be used for stabilizing currency exchange rates of the participating countries.

The measure already has been approved overwhelmingly by the house, and that chamber is referring a summer recess until later in the week in order to be able to concur in any minor changes the senior committee may make.

JURY UNABLE TO REACH VERDICT IN FRED DUBOSE CASE

NUMBER OF WITNESSES TESTIFIED IN CONTESTED CITY TRIAL

By PAUL MOORE
Daily Sun Staff

A jury in corporation court Friday afternoon was unable to agree on a verdict in the case of the State of Texas vs. Fred DuBose and was discharged by Judge C. L. Knox after the jury told him it was unable to agree. The jury stood five to one for acquittal, it was stated. DuBose, circulation manager and advertising salesman for the Corsicana Daily Sun and Semi-Weekly Morning Light, was tried on a complaint filed by O. B. Nutt, police chief, June 11, 1945, and accepted by Judge C. L. Knox, recorder of the corporation court, in connection with the alleged "beating" of a horse at the Wilson wagon yard on June 2, 1945. The animal, a stallion, is the property of DuBose who plead not guilty when arraigned on the charge. The complaint charged that DuBose beat the stallion unmercifully with an ax-handle. DuBose and other defense witnesses testified that the animal did have injuries that were not caused by the whipping administered on June 2.

GIVEN WAR BOND—Embry Ferguson, left, retiring president of the Junior Chamber of Commerce, was presented a War Bond on behalf of the organization by Sneed Hamilton, newly-installed president, at a meeting of the board of directors Thursday night. During the business session, social events, club projects and a membership drive were discussed. These matters will be referred to the membership for definite action.

The courtroom and all available vantage points, including the windows, were filled with interested spectators. Frequent tilts between opposing counsel enlivened the proceedings and at one point the Court threatened to clear out spectators unless they were more orderly. Norris Lovett and J. S. Simkins represented DuBose, and Doyle Pevehouse, city attorney, conducted the prosecution.

Defendant's Story

DuBose was the first witness for the defense. He said he was 35 years old, never had been in trouble and never had been arrested. His family consists of his wife, two daughters and a son.

Under questioning by his attorney, DuBose gave the information that he owns ten horses at the present time—that he buys and sells horses—including stallions—that he had never mistreated or beat horses—that all of "this stuff is hearsay," relating to charges against him.

DuBose then related that Jackie Rea had been unable to handle the stallion in question whom he had termed "spoiled" according to the horse's former owner, and that he (DuBose) did ride him.

Described Happenings
The witness said that the horse had reared and tried to fall back with him and that he had hit him between the ears to make him come back down on all four feet, but denied there was any skin broken or blood as a result. He said that the horse had run into an iron post and had cut a leg and ran under a trailer or truck and skinned a place on his hip, near the tail. He said he had had horses hurt before, but denied he had ever maimed one, knocked out eyes or teeth, said he had broken horses for Fred Allison and Ivan Rosenberg and was willing for the jury or anyone else to look over the animal (The animal was tied outside the city hall but the Court declined the offer to allow the jury to inspect the horse). He said the newspaper had not fired him in the matter.

On cross-examination, DuBose said he did not remember whether the stick in question was part of an ax-handle or not. He denied putting any abrasions on the horse.

The jury panel consisted of W. M. Miller, E. D. McCarver, W. T. Hill, E. M. McAlister, I. T. Kent, S. G. Gottlieb, Walter Hayes, Mr. Scarborough, G. H. Ferrell, Paul Mitchell, M. A. Spurgeon and him.

C. B. Towell, city policeman and former constable, testified he saw the whipping and that a stick 1 1/2 or 2 feet long was used about the size of a hoe handle and inter an ax handle was used. He said that the horse was hit over the head and body and that DuBose was riding the horse part of the time and other times was off the horse. Powell said that a cow whip was also used that striped the horse. He said that the horse was hit in the eye with the ax handle.

Lovett elicited from the witness that he (Powell) had been an officer about eight years and that he knew most of the time when a law was being broken and generally arrested the person involved. He said he didn't arrest DuBose and later he admitted he had whipped the animal. Lovett was unable to get the Court to allow certain questions he sought to propound and asserted that he (Lovett) was trying to show that DuBose hit the horse for protection to keep him from rearing back and falling on him, with the attendant danger of serious bodily injury.

John Blair officer for 20 years saw the whipping—He said there might have been a little blood, but not much and that DuBose got the ax handle from George Johnson. He admitted whipping horses and mules and had "cut the blood" out of them. When questioned as to whether he was tried, he replied "I didn't get caught". He also testified that the horse was rearing up and could have hurt DuBose had he fallen on him. He said he didn't stop DuBose or reprimand him.

Mrs. Kirk Steele was called to the witness stand and the jury was retained on the motion and request of Defense Attorney Lovett to ask the witness questions.

Mrs. Steele replied in the negative when she was asked whether she had seen the alleged "beating," but that she had seen the results the next day. She then admitted that of her own personal knowledge she did not know of the incidents and circumstances, that she had heard them from others, and that her information was based on hearsay. She said she believed what she had heard.

Judge Knox then advised opposing counsel that he would admit evidence of conditions of the horse on June 3, the day following the incidents, and the jury was returned to the courtroom.

Then civic strenuous objections of defense lawyers, Mrs. Steele described the conditions as she testified.

FORMER CORSICANAN NAMED DIRECTOR OF DALLAS TITLE CO.

DALLAS, July 13—Adair Dyer was elected Thursday as a director of Dallas Title & Guaranty Company, Dexter Hamilton, president, announced.

Dyer is general attorney for the St. Louis-Southwestern Railway Company of Texas, a position which he has held for the last twelve years.

Prior to that time he was assistant general attorney of the St. Louis-Southwestern Railroad Company, with offices in St. Louis, Mo. When Dyer became general attorney for the Cotton Belt, he moved to Dallas. He now is a member of the recently organized law firm of Hamilton, Dyer & Shults.

Mr. Dyer is a former Corsicanan, the son of the late J. M. Dyer and Mrs. J. M. Dyer, Sr., and is a brother of J. M. Dyer, Jr., Dexter Hamilton is also a former well-known Corsicanan.

It was evident the following day when she saw the horse. Lovett objected to her testimony as hearsay and Judge Knox sustained an objection when the witness said she observed the "shocking" conditions. She said that abrasions were seen on the right side of the horse's head, a hand skinned place above the tail, injury to the right back leg, jaws had been struck a number of times from the bruises in evidence, and that bloody mucus was dropping from the left eye.

The witness and Lovett engaged in some personal remarks, and under cross-examination, Mrs. Steele said she had not seen DuBose beat the horse. When asked whether she knew the horse ran into the barn and hurt himself, she replied she did not know anything about the matter except what someone had told her.

The State rested after Mrs. Steele's testimony. Following the testimony given by DuBose, Raymond Wilson, proprietor of the wagon yard where the incident occurred, testified he saw the whipping and that the horse had refused to go out of the wagon yard.

"I don't think he whipped him enough," he said and dangled his whip, rearing up, running over the iron post and truck to inflict most of the injuries received by the animal. He said one eye was swelled a little but that no blood was in evidence. He asserted that DuBose did not mistreat horses, and under cross examination by Pevehouse, he stated flatly the stick used was not an ax-handle.

Jackie Rea, 15, testified he had never seen DuBose mistreat a horse and detailed incidents of the performance of the animal along the same lines previous witnesses had testified. He had been unable to ride the horse, Rea said, and told DuBose of his failure. He denied an eye was knocked out, or that he saw any blood or cuts. The animal had not given any more trouble, Rea said.

The youth said he had not worked for DuBose. He voiced the opinion the stick in question was an ax handle. The law governing such cases was read the jury by Simkins and arguments of the attorneys were not given by agreement.

Attorney Lovett stated following the trial he would demand another trial next week.

WESLEYAN CHURCH OF CHRIST

A few days ago, I visited a mother who requested that I come and talk with her about her son who has been reported missing in action. I read a Scripture and offered a prayer and did all I could to comfort this sorrowing woman. When some troubles come, it is natural for people to meditate upon God's word and to pray, for at that time, as at no other, they realize the need of God's helping hand.

As I talked with the mother, I just thought that if it were in my power against the matter left wholly to my choice, I would restore her son and heal the wound of her heart. But, of course, that is not within the power of man. The best that I could do for her was to pray with her and discuss a Scripture.

In this world of pain and heartaches, the best all we can do is to rely on God. Realizing that our mortal lives are slowly decaying and dying, we should perpetually maintain the attitude toward God, "In to thy hands I commend my spirit." And thus we can be resurrected to everlasting life in the last day.
